Mission
The mission of the Department of Visual and Theatre Arts is to provide educational, artistic and cultural opportunities for the students of the University and the people of West Tennessee. The faculty and students serve the area through a quality undergraduate professional arts program with performances and exhibits enhancing the aesthetic and cultural awareness of the campus and region while preparing students for careers in the arts, teaching and for advanced study. The department engages in scholarly activity that fosters artistic integrity, scholarship and an appreciation for continued learning.

Facilities
The Fine Arts Building, opened in 1970, is a modern and attractive facility which provides teaching and rehearsal spaces for the theatre and music programs. Facilities for theatre include a rehearsal hall, laboratory theatre, dressing rooms, costume laboratory, and scene shop as well as faculty offices. The 500-seat Harriet Fulton Performing Arts Theatre is the setting for concerts, recitals, theatrical productions, and dance performances as well as events in the visiting artists series.

The art program is housed in three spacious studios and a lecture auditorium in Gooch Hall. The Fine Arts Gallery is the location for exhibits of works by faculty, students, and guest artists.

The spacious dance studio is located in the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center and features a floating wood floor along with mirrored walls and a performance stage. It is the site of student recitals as well as dance workshops and informal ensemble presentations.

Scholarships
There are three major scholarships available in the Department of Visual and Theatre Arts. Scholarships are awarded by audition or portfolio review and academic success. The Gala Scholarship is a one-year award of $1,500 given to a promising art, dance or theatre student. The David Wechsler Scholarship is a $1,000 award given annually to an outstanding major in art. The Bill Williams Scholarship is a $500 award renewable for four years to an outstanding theatre major. The William Snyder Scholarship is a $500 award and the Joan Metheny McGraw Scholarship is a $1,500 award given annually to an outstanding major in theatre.

Student Organizations
Opportunities for membership in associated student organizations are an important part of student development. The Visual Arts Society (Art, Art Education and Graphic Design) and Alpha Psi Omega (National Honor Fraternity for Theatre) support the efforts of the department and are important in the professional growth of students.
Curricula

Bachelor of Fine Arts with a Major in Fine and Performing Arts (2111, 2112)

The objectives of the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree program are as follows:

1. To provide an opportunity for students to pursue a quality, professional, multiple-arts, undergraduate program.

2. To provide, within the framework of a multiple-arts program, specific concentrations for students whose primary academic interest is art, graphic design, or theatre.

3. To produce graduates who have:
   a. Primary skill and depth in art or theatre;
   b. Secondary skill in arts disciplines other than the primary area;
   c. A broad understanding of the scope of the arts and their contribution to modern society;
   d. A general education appropriate to a professional arts degree including elective studies suited to individual needs and interests.

4. To prepare those students who seek careers in the field of art education for state teaching licensure, kindergarten through grade 12.

5. To prepare students for careers and/or for graduate study in settings utilizing a multiple-arts environment (e.g., arts administration, arts management, arts journalism, etc.).

6. To enhance the arts and provide an enriched cultural environment to the campus and to the region served by the university.

The major in Fine and Performing Arts provides a Studio option and a Teaching (2112) option. The Studio option includes an emphasis in Visual Art (2111), Graphic Design (2116), or Theatre (2118).

Admission and Retention

Students are admitted to the B.F.A. degree program only after successful audition (for students who choose Theatre as an area of emphasis) or portfolio review (for students who choose Art as their area of emphasis) by the appropriate faculty. Progress in the program will be monitored on an annual basis by the faculty. Only those students who make continuing and adequate progress (as defined by the faculty) in the Area of Emphasis will be allowed to continue beyond the second year.

Additional Requirements

1. Art, art education, and graphic design A.O.E. students will present a portfolio of works during the senior level for jury by the faculty.
2. Theatre A.O.E. students are expected to participate in productions of Vanguard Theatre and to achieve upper-division level skill in acting. A major production practicum or jury is required during the senior level by the faculty for graduation.
3. B.F.A. majors are required to participate in the enrichment opportunities which are available in the arts. These include the music, theatre, and dance performances, art exhibits, and other events presented by faculty and students as well as the fine and performing arts series presentations.
