Camp Coaching Staff

BUBBA CATES—Head Coach

Coach Cates is in his 13th season at the helm of the UT Martin baseball program and in his 21st year of coaching. Widely respected in the baseball circles, Cates is dedicated to sustaining a successful program at the university for many years to come. He came to UT Martin from Jackson State Community College where he built a successful program during a nine-year period. Cates has received several coach of the year honors. He was the National Junior College Athletic Association Region VII and Eastern District Coach of the Year in 1997. Before moving to Jackson State, Cates was head baseball coach at Kirby High in Memphis. A native of Cleveland, MS, Cates played college baseball for former Boston Red Sox pitcher and legendary coach Dave “Boo” Ferris and the nationally ranked Delta State program.

BRAD GOSS—Assistant Coach

Coach Goss, of Russellville, AR, enters his seventh season working with the UTM baseball program, and his fourth year as a full-time assistant coach. Goss spent two seasons as a graduate assistant, earning his master’s degree in education in the fall of 2006. In 2007, he continued to work with the Skyhawk baseball program as a part-time assistant. Goss spent the summer of 2006 coaching in the Alaskan Baseball League where he assisted former San Diego Padre, Phil Plantier. Coach Goss is responsible for working with the Hitters & Catchers.

ERIC EBERS—Assistant Coach

Eric Ebers, a southern Illinois native, enters his first year as an assistant coach at UT Martin, Ebers pitched 2 years at Mississippi State where he played under legendary coach Ron Polk. After a successful college career the southpaw pitched professionally in the Frontier League, the Northern League and the American Association League for parts of three seasons. In the summer of 2009, Ebers was named pitching coach for the Niagara Power, a Fellowship of Christian Athletes affiliated squad who competes in the New York Collegiate Baseball League. He remained in that post until he was promoted to head coach for the 2010 summer.
