Eligibility: Student must be a junior or senior (as classified by the student's high school), have a cumulative 3.0 unweighted high school GPA, high school counselor approval, and parent/legal guardian approval. Homeschooled students must have a minimum ACT composite score of 21. Continued Eligibility: Student must maintain a cumulative 2.75 college GPA.

Tennessee Dual Enrollment Grant (TN DEG): In addition to the eligibility requirements listed above, the student must be a Tennessee Resident for one year prior to enrollment. The student is responsible for submitting a Tennessee Dual Enrollment Grant Application by the application deadline each semester (deadline for Fall is September 15th; Spring is February 1st; Summer is May 15th). For the first four courses (grant #'s 1-4), this grant provides $500 for the first and second course, $200 for the third course, $0 for the fourth course, then allows the student to "borrow" $300 for each of courses five thru eight from their first semester Freshman Lottery Scholarship (HOPE). Students can use two grants per semester.

UTM Dual Advantage Scholarship: This scholarship works in conjunction with the TN DEG. Eligible students can use up to four scholarships, with a maximum of two scholarship per semester.

Tuition and Fees: The student is responsible for payment of tuition and fees not covered by either the Tennessee Dual Enrollment Grant or UTM Dual Advantage Scholarship due to ineligibility or failure to submit a TN DEG application by the deadline. Required Course Materials: The student is responsible for purchasing or renting all required course materials.

Withdrawal: The student is responsible for contacting the Dual Enrollment Office to drop a course. Students can drop a course during the first fourteen days of the semester at no cost and with no record of enrollment. Students dropping a course after the first fourteen days of the semester until the last drop date of the semester are (1) assessed a $50 drop fee per course (the student will not be dropped until the fee has been paid), (2) will have used one Tennessee Dual Enrollment Grant and one UT Martin Dual Advantage Scholarship per course dropped, and (3) will have a "W" recorded on their transcript for the course. Students who fail to drop a course by the last drop date of the semester will likely have an "F" recorded on their transcript for the course.
