Tennessee Professional Licensure for Counselors

To qualify for the Tennessee Professional Counselor License, students are required to complete sixty (60) graduate credit hours in counseling and must pass the state board exam for counselors.

Admission to Candidacy/Counseling Residency

Degree-seeking students are eligible to apply for admission to candidacy and to the counseling residency once they have enrolled in a minimum of 15 credit hours. Students must have satisfactorily completed Counseling 725 and Counseling 740 prior to completing the application. The Education Graduate Office will notify eligible students of the upcoming residency and will provide the appropriate combined application form at that time. The application must be submitted in order to participate in the four-day residency (held biannually). Students will be notified of the session they will be required to attend (January or June). Degree-seeking students must participate in the residency prior to completing 24 credit hours or they will not be allowed to continue in the program. Non-degree students are not required to attend, but are encouraged to do so.

You must submit the following materials for review by the Counseling Admissions Board. All materials should be mailed to:

Office of Graduate Studies, The University of TN at Martin, 227 Administration Building, Martin, TN 38238

- Three letters of recommendation from school superintendents, principals, teachers, professors and/or employers. Each letter must provide clear evidence that addresses the candidate's counseling skills and/or potential which will enable the individual to become a counselor. . LETTERS MUST BE MAILED TO GRADUATE STUDIES BY THE REFERENCE, they must not be submitted by the applicant.
- A two-page typed essay that fully describes the candidate's skills and experiences relevant to becoming a successful counselor. The candidate must also discuss the perceived personal abilities and attributes that will enable the counseling candidate to become a successful counselor.
- A resume that fully describes the candidate's degrees, and importantly, the person's occupational experiences – particularly any counseling experiences obtained.
- Form that acknowledges requirement for four-day counseling residency held on the UT Martin campus (<http://www.utm.edu/departments/edgrad/forms.php> – “Acknowledgement of 4 day Counseling Residency”)
- Page 472 of the 2012-13 catalog requires “documentation of teaching experience provided by the applicant's school system on appropriate letterhead . . . Applicants without teaching experience must submit a signed acknowledgement of this requirement”. (<http://www.utm.edu/departments/edgrad/forms.php> - “No Teaching Experience” form)
