

As a final assignment of your completed student teaching experience please reflect on the question below:

In what way(s) have my views changed about my role in the profession of education since the beginning of my student teaching experience in the areas of: personal philosophy, instruction, planning, environment, discipline and professionalism?