

10-day Travel Study in Japan

May/June 2010

It is time to put what you have been learning to use! On this trip, you will see one of the busiest and the most exciting cities in the world—Tokyo, Japan—and experience Japanese traditions, culture and history through your home-stay in Hirosaki (home of our partner university). You will also have a chance to participate in classes at the International Student Exchange Center of Hirosaki University, where you will get to meet with local students!

Take advantage of this unique opportunity and expand your world!!
