Upon admission to a graduate degree program, a maximum of two (2) graduate courses (with at least a "B" in each course) earned as a non-degree and/or Unclassified student may be accepted in a degree program. If a student is admitted into a degree program from non-degree status, the date of the earliest course approved for graduate credit will be used as the beginning of the six-year limit toward completion.

Identify which graduate courses, maximum of two (2) graduate courses, you wish to apply toward your graduate degree.
