COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

TIEP students spent the day visiting local schools and volunteered their time to work in local community service settings. After a morning at an elementary school, Joyce and Teresa worked with Americans at a local charity to prepare goods for the We Care thrift shop.

THE INTERNATIONAL FOOD FAIR

Students from China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, and Turkey worked hard to prepare delicious dishes from home to share with students, faculty, and staff at U.T. Martin. International students collaborated with American students and the International Programs staff to decorate University Center with welcome signs and banners in a variety of languages, prepared food, and explained their favorite recipes to their many happy customers.

American Conversation Partner Program

As a prelude to One World Week at the UT Martin campus, Dr. J. Rogers and his Geography 202 class formed a partnership with a group of international students through the Conversation Partners Program of the Intensive English Program/International Programs with the help of Glen Byrd and Judy Cleek.

Here are a few photos of their first meeting at a pizza party courtesy of Dr. Rogers.

Note: it is not possible for users to post to the list.

Recording Artist Ella Jenkins Performed for Children at UT Martin

Music for children from around the world was part of Ella Jenkins inspiring presentation at Watkins Auditorium this April. Children and adults alike were called to the stage to join in the performance. She led the group in call and response with her ukulele and harmonica beckoning all to follow her movement and song. The children of several international students were in the audience and joined in the fun!

New Football Coach at UT Martin

Matt Griffin, former assistant coach at University of Maine, has become the new UT Martin football coach.
