Hirosaki Students Visit Martin

Eighteen Japanese junior high-school students accompanied by five of their teachers from Hirosaki City visited Martin for a week this summer. The students had English classes, a weekend homestay with the families of their junior high-school American partners, a field trip to Reelfoot Lake and Dyersburg, as well as several gatherings. They visited the Martin

Middle School and attended a welcome reception, swimming party, banquet and farewell gathering. This visit is part of an on-going exchange program between Hirosaki and Martin, Tennessee. A group of American students from Martin recently returned from a visit to Hirosaki with wonderful memories of international travel and cross-cultural exchange. (The photo above is the visit of American students to Hirosaki City.)

Dr Ernest Moser, Dean of the College of Business presented certificates of honor to Miaoling Chen and Li Chien Lin of Taiwan.
