

What software applications and technological tools did you learn about and use during your coursework?

Open-Ended Response

- Kidspiration
- Smart Board
- I learned how to use every Microsoft office program available and I used them when I could for any class.
- I learned how to use the smart board.
- I learned about all the websites that are available to educators.
- I had to use PowerPoint in some of my coursework.
- Smart Boards, Beams and software applications such as Brainpop and Education Intervention
- In HLRN 311, I learned several helpful ideas
- Smart Board, projectors, and PowerPoint
- We used computers in Human Learning 311 and we mostly used Word, the internet, and HyperStudio.
- Smart Board
- The software applications and technological tools used in coursework I already knew how to use.
- I learned about many technological tools to use during my coursework. The one I found most useful would be learning about SmartBoard. There are so many ways that the SmartBoard helps in teaching students.
- I learned how to prepare a PowerPoint and a web quest.
- PowerPoint, excel, word
- The basic stuff, but I had already been introduced to these earlier.
- Inspiration, Hyperstudio, PowerPoint, Excel, Word
- smart board
- STAR, PowerPoint, and FLASH
- Microsoft, Excel, some program to make presentations other than PowerPoint, and SmartBoard
- Finale and Pyware
- 1. Overhead projector 2. PowerPoint 3. TVAAS data
- I learned about the smartboard but did not have the opportunity to use it during my student teaching.
- I used Finale music program, SmartBoard, word, and PowerPoint.
- In my first placement I worked with the promethean board. It was a great tool and I loved using it in my lessons.
- Mostly we learned to use PowerPoint, and creating websites.
- smart board technology is the most useful i've learned about
- Power point smart board word
- I learned and used Microsoft office during my course work.
- Microsoft, excel, PowerPoint, and word.
- During course work I learned about several tools such as the inspiration software that helps students organize thoughts and information.
- I used PowerPoint, a laptop, and a projector almost daily. I also used a SMARTBoard.
- How to use Smartboard, brainpop, and unitedstreaming.
- I learned the most about creating power points and websites for my lessons and classroom.
- I learned about making newsletters and websites. I also learned how to use Power Teacher. I used Write Source and much more.
- PowerPoint and word
- I learned spreadsheet, kidspiration, and PowerPoint. I already knew a lot about computers and technology.
- Riverdeep, ThinkLink
- SMART board
- Various gradebook software
- smart board
- PowerPoint, Excel, and Smartboard

- Power Point, Microsoft Word, Smart Board
- I learned how to use the smart board, and learned about a variety of software applications in the computer technology class that I had to take.
- Smart Board and many reading websites.
- Microsoft. Power point.
- None I came from a printing company with lots of experience.
- PowerPoint, excel, word
- PowerPoint, Inspiration, Excel, and Word.
- I used power points and the overhead but did not learn any new technology.
- I did not learn anything that I didn't know before the coursework.
- Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint, Microsoft Excel
- Different parts of WORD that I was not aware were available
- I learned about the smart board and power points.
- I learned about using a SMART board.
- I learned as well as used the Smart Board and Power Point Presentation in my classroom.
- promethean board
- PowerPoint, excel, word, and how to use an elmo
- I learned to work with PowerPoint, Word, SmartBoards, Excel, and many others.
- I used the Promethean software.
- I learned a lot about Kidspiration in Human Learning 311 and I also learned a lot about interactive websites/tools to use in my teaching.
- Microsoft Office Products
- The SMART Board is a nice manipulative for the classroom. Students interact with it well and they stay on task throughout the lesson.
- Smartboard, and several others in Dr. Hartshorn's classes. Computers and printers.
- PowerPoint
- I learned how to use Finale (Music Notation Software), Pyware (Drill Writing Software), and basic office programs better than I previously knew.
- I was involved with Microsoft (power-point) and internet.
- Microsoft Office products, Elmo, Distant Learning
- Everything I used was new to me. Blackboard, Smartboard, clickers, power point
- PowerPoint, Word, Quia.com, Projector
- Smart Board, Elmo, and Computer Projector Programs
- I learned about smartboards, something I had never worked with before.
- All Microsoft office programs.
- I was introduced to the Smart Board, Excel, and Windows Vista.
- I mainly used Microsoft Word. I used the computerized overhead projector also.
- The Smart Board was the main thing I learned about. I learned to utilize well known software in the classroom as well.
- The Smartboards
- In 750 we focused on making a Web Quest. This was a great tool that I will carry with me. The entire process helped me familiarize myself with technology in general.
- Finale music composition software
- Everything in Human Learning 211--very beneficial!
- I already knew, about and used often, Microsoft Word and Power Point. I learned how to use a projector to show the Power Points and an overhead projector for transparencies.
- The SMART Board was a tool I used in my preschool classroom.
- I learned how to make a webquest for interactive learning as well as how to operate and incorporate the Smart Board equipment into lessons.
- Smartboard
- SMART Board
- Smartboard; CBL with various probes

- During my coursework in the Education Department I learned about and used all Microsoft Office applications and SmartBoards.
- I was able to use the SMART board as well as learn about many different websites that are available.
- I used the ELMO, computer, and power point software during my coursework.
- Kid Pix Hyper Studio I knew quite a bit about Microsoft Word, Excel, and Power Point, but I learned even more about the educational value of these software resources.
- I used the ELMO, computer, projector, and PowerPoint during coursework.
- I did not learn anything about any kind of technology specifically from coursework.
- Power Point Microsoft Word UTM Database Projector
- Finale
- The only thing that I can recall learning about is PowerPoint. I already knew some stuff about it but I learned a few more things during my technology class.
- I learned several software applications such as Word, Excel, Access, and PowerPoint. I also had worked with a SmartBoard.
- Smartboard
- I learned about the KidPix program, and I learned how to do more things through Microsoft PowerPoint.