Traveling for Your Future

As our world becomes smaller and as our country and region become more internationalized, your travel study also becomes a resumé builder, giving you an advantage after graduation. Many of our top-notch graduates not only traveled with UT Martin, they used these experiences to gain employment in internationally focused companies.

Cost of UT Martin's International Programs

- You can apply for Student Government Association scholarships to help pay for the trip. Recent SGA awards and scholarships went to more than 125 students.
- Professors and staff can help you find additional scholarships. Private funds are also available.
- Programs can be paid for in installments.
