RisingStar Leadership Summit
Guidelines and Release Form

The RisingStar Summit is a leadership program designed for West Tennessee’s future leaders. As such, we expect a certain level of maturity and behavior among our participants. Below is a list of guidelines that should be followed from the time the participant leaves home until they return home.

- Participants are expected to be at every scheduled event on time.
- No cell phones or electronic devices should be used during the day's events.
- Utilize only the transportation and facilities assigned by the RisingStar Summit.
- Zero tolerance of alcoholic beverages, tobacco and drugs (unless prescribed by a physician).
- Participants should respect all program coordinators and chaperones throughout their attendance at the RisingStar Summit.
- After participants return to their hotel rooms for the night, they are to remain in their assigned rooms unless an emergency arises, no exceptions.
