PARTICIPATION AND COMMITMENT

In order to accomplish the WestStar mission, the full commitment and participation of each class member is necessary. Tuition is $700 and is due upon receipt of acceptance letter. This fee includes meals during each session, breaks, program materials and expenses. Participants are responsible for their own lodging and transportation. Two thirds of actual participant cost is underwritten by the program sponsors.

Therefore, full participation in the program is an expectation. Although emergencies arise, WestStar Board policy specifies that any absence from any session or any part of a session be reviewed by the Trustees to determine if continued successful participation is still feasible.
