

April 28, 2001

Glitter Glue: Sparkling Sessions, Dazzling Demos

A workshop on reading and writing for K-8 teachers and parents

Saturday, April 28, 2001-- 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m
Briarwood School, 169 Briarwood Street, Camden.

Schedule

8:30-9:00 Gathering, name tags, coffee

9:00-10:30 : Opening session: "On the Day You Were Born: Reading and Writing off Literature," with Margrethe Ahlschwede, Director, West Tennessee Writing Project

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-11:45 Concurrent Sessions A (choose 1)

- A1: "Glitterly Speaking: Sparkly Words Across the Curriculum," with Donna Dabbs, Halls Elementary, and Teacher Consultant of WTWP.
- A2: "Rubrics: Where Should We Look and What Should We Look for?" with by Beth Halbert, Mount Juliet, TN, Teacher Consultant and Advisory Council member of WTWP.

11:45-12:45 Lunch

12:45-1:45 Concurrent Sessions B (choose 1)

- B1: "Catching Sunbeams: How Readers of All Ages Make Meaning," with Mary Lou Marks, Camden, co-director of WTWP.
- B2: "Tips That Stick,," with Betty Jordan, Benton County Supervisor of Instruction and Teacher Consultant of WTWP.

2:00-2:45 Closing Session, "A Mad Dash through the Mountain ...Writing with Peer Gynt.," with Pam Sliger, Weakley County Schools and Teacher Consultant of WTWP.

2:45-3:00 Evaluation and certificates of participation

Workshop organizer: Paula Cox, Briarwood School, and co-director of WTWP.

This workshop is a program of professional development of the West Tennessee Writing Project, Department of English, The University of Tennessee at Martin, Martin, TN 38238, (901) 587-7290, held in cooperation with Briarwood School in Camden.

Registration is $10. Pre-registration encouraged. To register, send name, address, and name of school where teaching along with $10 to Office of Extended Campus and Continuing Education, 110 Gooch Hall, UTM, Martin, TN 38238. Make checks payable to UTM. Or e-mail registration, ecce@utm.edu

- This workshop has been approved for inservice credit by some systems. Please check with your supervisor to verify inservice credit availability.