Annual Civil Rights Conference*

February 19-24, 2011

Saturday
February 19
- 11:00am-3:00pm Ken-Tenn Homecoming and Reunion Association and Community Forum
  - African History Month, Art, Poetry and Music.
  - Boling University Center, Watkins Auditorium

Sunday
February 20
- 3:00pm-5:00pm Ken-Tenn Homecoming and Reunion Association and Community Forum
  - African History Month, Art, Poetry and Music.
  - Boling University Center, Watkins Auditorium

Monday
February 21
- 12:00pm Mississippi I Love Book Reading and Signing
  - Boling University Center Bookstore

Tuesday
February 22
- 9:30am Quality Education Project Workshop
  - How can we guarantee quality education to everyone? Bring your creativity and passion.
  - Boling University Center 206A and 206B
- 12:00pm Roots of Rhythm – $5 admission
  - A musical demonstration of how the clave rhythm traveled through out the world through the migration of African slaves.
- 2:30pm How German Philosophers Created the Myth of A Superior White Race
  - Henry Parker
- 7:30pm Roots of Rhythm – $5 admission
  - See description at 12:00pm above.

Wednesday
February 23
- 10:00am Brooke Haycock: Catalyst
  - An unflinching portrayal of the power of educators to change students’ lives. Following two young men, Carl and Isaiah, Catalyst takes on the tough questions of student engagement, bringing audiences face to face with some of the most devastating—and inspiring—images of student transformation.
- 12:00pm Peace and Justice Rally
  - Plaza between Boling University Center and Paul Meek Library.
- 1:00pm Brooke Haycock: Dilated Pupils and the Not-So-Soft Bigotry of a Nation
  - Takes audiences on a whirlwind tour through the school doors, past the metal detectors, and straight into the lives of three high school students. Told from the perspectives of students and the adults in their lives, Dilated Pupils dares audiences to confront the stories of young people hobbled by low expectations.
- 3pm Lessons from the Mountaintop: Civil Rights and Labor Organizing in the South

Thursday
February 24
- 9:30am Ain’t Gonna Let Nobody Turn Me Around: the Civil Rights Movement’s Significance
  - Charles McKinney
- 11:00am A White Southerner in the Civil Rights Movement
  - Sue Thrasher
- 1:00pm Integrating SEC Basketball
  - Perry Wallace
- 2:30pm Jim Crow Trains, Civil Rights and the Creation of the Black Middle Class
  - Linda Bradford
- 7:00pm Bernice Johnson Reagon, Keynote Speaker
  - UTM Collegiate Gospel Choir

Please Join our University of Tennessee at Martin Civil Rights Conference Facebook Group or for more information email civilrights@utm.edu.

All events will be held in Boling University Center, Watkins Auditorium unless otherwise noted.