DYNAMIC TEAM LEADS UT MARTIN MEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM—Head Men's Basketball Coach Anthony Stewart (center, white shirt) introduced his coaching staff to Kiwanis Club members at last week's meeting. Coach Stewart shared excitement about the players on the 2016-17 team and said that these players were recruited not only for their talent but also for their potential to be good role models for children and all in the community. Pictured with Coach Stewart, are (from left) Greg Majchzak, graduate assistant; Jermaine Johnson, assistant coach; Alex Ireland, assistant coach; DeAndre Walker, assistant coach; and Ali Parvaz, director of basketball operations. Coach Stewart, who is beginning his first season as head coach after serving two years as associate head coach, said, "We have 15 home games and 16 away games. Come out and watch these guys play." He added, "We are taking up Coach Johnson's phrase "Win the day," and our attitude is to finish each day strong." Coach Stewart also explained that the letters "ADU," which appear on some basketball gear, stand for the words "Aggressive," "Disciplined," and "Unselfish" and are part of the dynamic of this year's team.

Note: after narrowly falling to Ole Miss in Oxford, MS, on Friday by the score of 86 to 83, UT Martin recovered by beating University of Texas Rio Grande Valley at the Elam Center by the score of 88 to 80.

Clinton Smith installed officers at the Builders Club meeting last week. Installed were Porter Mantooth, president; Georgia Wilson, vice-president; Ellie Blackburn, secretary; and Landon Mays, treasurer. The club is sponsoring a "sock drive" to benefit St. Jude. Your contribution of socks or $$$ can be given to Clinton.
