The following is a partial summary of an an article from Uptick Magazine, an online publication for employees of Edward Jones, Inc. It was referred to us by Misty Menees, who is the Branch Office Administrator for the Martin office of Edward Jones.

In 2014, Misty Menees and Westview Key Club members Laura Ferrer, Lexie Forrester, Madison Koon, Alexis Arnold, and Rebecca Skeen visited a Martin Kiwanis Club meeting and reported on their successes at winning awards at the District and International Convention. Heather McFarland, a Branch Office Administrator for Edward Jones in Dyersburg, attended that presentation and left feeling that her community needed Key Clubs too. "They had won awards, and it was impressive!"

Heather and the Dyersburg Kiwanis Club expressed interest in establishing Key Clubs to the Dyersburg City and Dyer County High School principals, who approved them for their schools in May, 2016. The Dyersburg Kiwanis Club officially sponsored and chartered the clubs in October. Heather, now the Key Club advisor, indicated that they were excited to be able to bring opportunities to the students in the Dyersburg area. The club has been especially active in the "terrific Kids" program to earn service hours.

"Terrific Kids" is a Kiwanis student recognition program that promotes character, self-esteem and perseverance. Students work with teachers to
