A note on the 50th Anniversary Gala: Festivities begin at 5:30 with an (optional) tour of Discovery Park. A social hour begins at 6:00 that will include a cash bar. It is anticipated that the DPA tour will overlap the social hour by approximately 30 minutes. The dinner and program begin at 7:00. Current members meal is included in your monthly dues. Guest tickets are $15. We will have signup sheets available at meetings for current members and their guests. For others, Steve Lemond has agreed to be the contact person for reservations (slemond@utm.edu). Deadline May 2.

K-Kids Honors Martin Police Department: Assistant Police Chief Phillip Fuqua and Officer Adam Stringer joined K-Kids members, Sara Sieber, greeting card facilitator Anna Clark, and Governor Britton at last week’s meeting. K-Kids were to design a greeting card for a member of the police department, address an envelope, write a message on their card, sign it as “designed by....,” seal it with a Kiwanis sticker and “post” it by dropping it in a bag. Even reluctant ones got “into it” and had a great time. Most completed at least two cards!

Excitement Coming!—It's getting close to rodeo time in West Tennessee! Coach John Luthi shared information about UT Martin's 50th annual spring college rodeo when he visited Kiwanis last Wednesday. The Rodeo will be April 12 - 14 in the Ned Ray McWherter Agricultural Complex and the N. W. (Doc) Robinson Arena. Features of this year's rodeo include free county-wide barbecue, rodeo clown and fun man Dusty Myers, a chance to win an MTD riding lawn mower and top bucking bulls and horses from Mark Johnson, Universal Rodeos, Jonesboro, Ark.

Kiwanian Orrin Cowley was one of the leaders in the Martin Luther King march last Wednesday from Martin City Hall to Watkins Auditorium on the UT Martin campus. Orrin and other community leaders held a sign which read "I have decided to stick with love . . . hate is too great a burden to bear."

Wed. April 18: UTM Captain’s Challenge: Donate to UTM on this day and your gift (up to $300) will be matched. Consider donating to your favorite gift fund including the Kiwanis Award for Leadership and Service.
