Martin K-Kids Form Martin Elementary School Chapter - K-Kids of Martin Elementary school have reactivated their club for the 2009-2010 school year. The Martin Club is made up of twenty-eight youngsters and their advisors from the Martin Kiwanis Club. K-Kids is a "student-led" community-service organization, which operates under school regulations and draws its members from the student body. The K-Kids' motto is "We Build," and its objectives are: (1) To provide opportunities for working together in service to school and community; (2) To develop leadership potential. (3) To foster and development of strong moral character. (4) To encourage loyalty to school, community, and nation. Pictured are first row (L – R): MaKayla Hazlewood, Kelsie Dunn, Jesse Shell, Emma Blanton, Annabell Pierce, Rachel Powers, Larkin Cook. Second row: Mrs. Teresa Jackson (Martin Elementary school Principal), Bailey Wisener, Madison Sherwood, Katie Rea, Heidi Craddock, Kaitlyn Mayo, River Newsom, Avery Grace Newsom, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bell (Advisor). Third row: Mrs. Tammy Hazlewood (Advisor), and Hannah Ward.

Key Leader Weekend, May 4– 6

Laura Brown reported on her efforts to encourage African-American students to learn to swim as part of Robert Nunley’s after school program. Laura is helped by student athletes and others, some of whom needed to polish up their own swimming skills.

Laura, who was born in Canada, told of her first Kiwanis meeting ever, when she was so impressed by our singing what she thought was “God Save the Queen.” Linda Ramsey, who has taught swimming for years, commended Laura and her assistants in their efforts.
