

October 17, 2018

"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Program

Assistant Police Chief Phillip Fuqua, ALICE

When Steve Vantrease spoke to Kiwanis about the Weakley County Schools, he mentioned the Active Shooter Civilian Response Training Program undertaken by the Weakley County Schools. Just prior to that meeting, Martin Assistant Police Chief Phillip Fuqua had appeared on WPSD at one of those sessions. Several members commented at that time that we needed to have a program on ALICE: Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, and Evacuate.

Future Programs

- Oct. 24 — Mike Rea, President, Weakley County Historical and Genealogical Society
- Oct 31 — Thrills and Chills: Ghostly Activity in Martin — club members and guests.

Mary Carpenter, director of the Obion River Regional Library (ORRL), and Jenny Vaughn, assistant director, shared information about services, vision, and mission of the regional library when they visited Kiwanis at the October 10 meeting.

The ORR was formed in 1941 as a cooperative project between the Tennessee Valley Authority and the State of Tennessee. Since then it has evolved to nine counties: Benton, Carroll, Crockett, Dyer, Gibson, Henry, Lake, Obion, and Weakley.

The mission of the Tennessee Regional Library System is to make libraries better by assisting local governments and public libraries in the development
