Jane Goodall (aka Ann Gathers) visits K-Kids, Nov. 1, top left, right, middle right. At bottom, members enthusiastically met the requirements of joining Jane Goodall's Alligator Club by naming 10 types of dogs, trees and birds and 5 types of butterflies and moths., Lower left: members line up to check out Kiwanis Read to Lead books.

Having a Kiwanis meeting on Halloween proved to be the perfect time to dust off some ghost stories when Earl Wright, guest Jan Wainscott, Anna Clark, and several others shared spooky tales. Instead of bone-chilling noises, however, laughter was the most dominant "eerie" sound.

Earl told about some stories and happenings on campus around Halloween; Jan told a true story about a women's experiences on the 4th floor of Clement; and Anna shared a story about Stephen Mooney, Walter Haden, and the strange details surrounding Mooney's death and The Tennessee Poetry journal. Anna also read Mooney's short but chilling poem entitled "The Guide's Speech."
