Kiwanians and the Martin Community turn out for 15th annual Empty Bowls. The event was held in the Student Life Center. Judging by the turnout, it would have been chaos in the Wesley Center or the Black Box Theatre.

Robert Nunley speaks with Danelle and Sara after the Nov. 14th meeting. Robert shared words of wisdom from his lifetime of experience and related a story that illustrated the idea of “who you are when you think no one is looking” and explained that children and others are looking and that your actions can make a difference in their lives. He told about his work in Indianapolis before he came back to Martin and said, “You must be the right kind of warrior and remember that life is not a sprint; it’s a marathon.” “Above all,” he said as he discussed adverse childhood experiences that are a reality for so many, “you must let lights shine for other people.”
