The Crossroad Civic Club Association (CCCA) is looking at a Mardi Gras themed get together on March 1st at the Lindell. It looks as if it will be $25 per person for heavy hors d'oeuvres. There will be a cash bar, some dancing and lots of fun. Please let Linda Ramsey or Vickie Hazelwood know. They are trying to get an idea if there is enough interest to proceed.

Pancake Tickets: You should have a packet of 20 tickets. Each member (by vote of the club) has a financial obligation for 20. Contact Steve if you did not get yours.

Great to have Christie back with us last Wednesday.

K-Kids at Martin Elementary School rock! On Thursday, January 17, art teacher Jennifer Wenz visited the group to explain about the Anna Kate Wenz FIGHT Foundation and to guide the 28 students attending in making cards for children fighting cancer. In several weeks, Jennifer will take the special hand-crafted cards to students at the St. Jude Target House in Memphis. The K-Kids were most creative in the shaping of their cards, and each person handed his or her card directly to Jen Wenz. She explained that the cards will be connections to the outside world for so many of the children and that each card will be treasured by someone.
