The Greenfield High School Key Club will host its Chartering Ceremony on April 4, at 7:00 p.m. The event will take place in the Greenfield High School Library. Several Kiwanis members are going to go over a little early and grab dinner before the ceremony, so if you want to carpool and join them, please let Danelle know of your intentions.

Kiwanis Magazines: If you have unwanted Kiwanis Magazines lying about your house and would like to repurpose them, we are hoping to collect these and distribute them to offices in the area. Let Bettye or Anna know.

The 33rd annual City of Martin Easter Egg Hunt is scheduled for Saturday morning, April 13, at the Martin Recreation Complex. Last year, 305 hunters searched for the golden eggs hidden in each hunt, and more than 12,000 candy-filled Easter eggs were scattered for children to find.

For more than 27 years, Kiwanis has been a part of the action with the crafty, colorful, creative, and free decorated egg contest. Children are asked to bring decorated eggs (cooked, of course!) to the Easter Egg Hunt to be judged for one of the 15 prize baskets.

There is no entry fee for any event at the annual Easter Egg Hunt. Entries for the most colorful, most unusual, and best celebrity decorated eggs will be accepted between 9 -10 a.m. The categories for judging are the same as for the egg hunts: Special Needs, 1-2, 3-4, 5-7, and 8-10.

Event planners and Kiwanis members urge young artists to decorate boiled eggs and hop on over to the Martin Recreation Complex for excitement galore!

Winners of the decorated egg contest will be announced at the end of each hunt. The hunts have been scheduled as follows: Special Needs, 10 a.m.; 1-2 year olds, 10:20 a.m.; 3-4 year olds, 10:40 a.m.; 5-7 year olds, 11 a.m.; 8 – 10 year olds, 11:20 a.m.

Captain's Challenge 2019 The University of Tennessee at Martin will host its fifth annual Captain's Challenge fundraising event April 3 with the goal to raise $300,000 in 24 hours.
