Club News

Note: April 10 meeting is in room 230

Kiwanis Magazines: If you have unwanted Kiwanis Magazines lying about your house and would like to repurpose them, we are hoping to collect these and distribute them to offices in the area. Let Bettye or Anna know.

Pam Bates (center) from Greenbrier Meadows Assisted Living in Martin was the featured speaker at the April 3 meeting of Kiwanis. Pictured with her are Danelle Fabianich, Kiwanis president, and Steve Lemond, program chair for April. Pam is holding a certificate noting that a donation has been made in her honor to the Martin Public Library

Foundation. Pam explained that Greenbrier Meadows is an assisted living community that combines gracious accommodations with professionally licensed support services for a truly inclusive environment that puts people first. Pam also encouraged Kiwanis members to volunteer their talents as Greenbrier residents love visiting with people and being active. Pam said, "If you have any musical talent or a talent or program, residents would love for you to come and share that activity with them." She mentioned that she hopes one Kiwanis member will come to present a program on Little Golden Books and another to do a music program.

Greenfield Key Club Chartered. What could be more exciting for Kiwanis than helping a new service leadership club begin and "to improve the world one child and one community at a time"? Last Thursday, Danelle, Jayne, Mary Elizabeth, Laura, Linda, Frank Black and Jessica,
