Fishing Derby: 51 children participated in this year’s event. The rain held off until just the time that people were packing to go home. Danelle, Bill, Mary Elizabeth, Earl, Jayne, Anna, Jim, and Christie showed up to help. Clinton took a ton of pictures which appear on Facebook, some of which appear below. There were lots of fish caught along with a couple four pound catfish, some largemouth bass, and, as someone said, “the most beautiful bream I have ever seen!” Unfortunately, no prize was offered for prettiest fish. Included are some familiar faces along with a “best dressed winner” and jubilant “5 and under” prize winners. Roughly 30 door prizes were also given out, so there were many happy children!

Last week: Several years ago, Becca Russell visited the club and addressed food insecurity among students. Many of us were surprised that the problem existed at UTM. Last week, Dimitric Brown and Laura Kepler discussed efforts to address that issue. They began by noting that local student surveys indicated that as many as 20 percent of students reported hardship in affording food. In response to that need, the Division of Student Affairs, SGA, Sodexo and Residence Life have partnered in establishing two programs: Skyhawk Share, in which students may donate meals to be placed on another person’s Skyhawk card and Captain’s Pantry, a food bank set up Ellington and Cooper Hall. Considerable efforts have been made to supply needed items through community organizations, fraternity and sorority donations, special donation days, homecoming, family weekends and philanthropic organizations.
