Toying Around! Charles Harding, retired UT Martin professor of chemistry with a passion for making wooden toys, was the speaker today (July 10) for the Kiwanis weekly meeting. You should see these toys! You would be fascinated by the T-Rex, the hippo, the dog, the frog—all with moving parts. And boxes— Charles also crafts wooden boxes. We loved Charles' entertaining and interesting presentation. If you go to the FUMC Christmas Bazaar this year, you might be lucky enough to find a Charles Harding wooden treasure! In these pictures Charles (left) explains some details to Kiwanis members after the meeting

To left: the Greenfield and Westview Key Club board meeting was held on July 15 at Trinity Presbyterian Church. A reception was held honoring Robert McCall and Jessica Hightower for their leadership in mentoring the irrespective clubs. Also attending was Seth Fields, the new advisor to the Westview Club.
