Nine members from the Kiwanis Club of Martin attended the August 1 organizational meeting of those interested in forming a Kiwanis Club in Greenfield. Seventeen persons were present for the meeting. Attending from Martin were: Bill Austin, Mary Elizabeth Bell, Frank Black, Anna Clark, Jim Clark, Bettye Giles, Jayne Parrish, Linda Ramsey, and Sara Sieber.

Russell Orr, educational specialist at Discovery Park of America, educated and entertained Kiwanis members at the July 31st meeting of the group.

Orr said that he loves his job and is proud of the outreach to all ages at DPA. He discussed some of the hands-on, interactive, immersive programs that have been planned for groups, including one lesson about the terrible tragedy of the Titanic where only one third of the passengers survived; others about Alvin York and the trenches in WWI, the Trail of Tears, and the Civil War. "We want everyone excited about learning," Orr said. "We want to give all ages an experience at DPA that they won't forget. We want to teach as many children as we can."

Above: Russell Orr shows maps and descriptions of countries used to simulate how policies can lead to catastrophic events as in the outbreak of World War I.

Kiwanis K-Kids advisor Sara Sieber enjoyed greeting MES students and their families at school registration last week. Twenty-five students completed forms for the after-school club; more forms will be available in the school office. What great programs are planned for this year! There are no fees. The group meets after school (2:30 - 3:15 p.m.) twice a month on Thursdays during the school year.
