Upcoming Programs

Sept. 30: Monte Belew, UTM's new Director of Public Safety

Oct. 7: Installation of Officers by Lt. Gov. Cathy Fry

Board Notes: BBQ Plans. Board members noted that plans are evolving because of the pandemic and there is no way to make specific preparations at this time. Clinton moved to postpone the BBQ for the fall and for the Board to reconsider the event in spring. The motion was approved.

Key Leader Weekend: Key Leader will be postponed until Spring 2021, April 30 - May 2.

Carl Perkins – Circle of Hope Telethon – There was a request for a donation from Carl Perkins Center. The club has donated $100 in the past. A motion to do so again this year passed.

Kiwanis Yard Flag – Annie announced that yard flags were available to any members who are interested. Members can contact Linda if they would like to order.

Christie Ricketts Memorial Donation. The club sent flowers to Christie's memorial service. The board elected to donate $100 in her honor to the Martin Kiwanis Club Award for Leadership and Service. In other action the Kiwanis scholarship for local high school students to attend UTM will be renamed in Christie's honor as the Christie Ricketts Memorial Kiwanis Scholarship.

Officer Training Opportunity. Signup by October 7th for virtual training. Pam Bates has accepted a new position and submitted a letter of recognition from the club. The resignation was reluctantly accepted.

Congratulations to Steve Lemond and Ann Gathers for having served 40 (Steve) and 15 years (Ann) at UT Martin.

September Anniversaries

Otha BrittonSept. 21

Past President Danelle Fabianich presented a Zeller Award to Greenfield Kiwanis Club Board Member, Tara Tansil. This presentation was originally done via their regular Zoom Meeting of the Greenfield Kiwanis Club, and Linda Ramsey, Club Coach, presented the Zeller to Tara on behalf of Past Governor, Otha Britton. Otha wished to honor Tara for her dedication to the International Foundation through her efforts as the UTM Women's Basketball Coach when she asked her team to do a Free-Throw Basketball Fundraiser for the IDD Project. Danelle also wanted to show off the District Foundation Garden Flag that she just purchased for her yard to keep Kiwanis soaring in our community.
