Club News

Kurt McGuffin, UTM Director of Intercollegiate Athletics, discussed UTM's athletic programs and the changes due to the pandemic. Football is a spring sport! Limited season tickets are to be offered. Covid testing is ubiquitous. Budget shortfalls plague intercollegiate sports everywhere.

In spite of the troubles, all sports are practicing and trying to make schedules for their upcoming seasons. Those who walk the fitness trail at UTM can see the women's tennis team in action and when the footing is not so treacherous see runners on the greenway, campus, and even the streets of Martin.

Key Leader Update: Key Leader North is scheduled for April 30-May 2, 2021 at Camp Lakeshore in Eva, Tennessee. Due to pandemic concerns, the number of students attending is to be in the range of 25 to 30 to allow for social distancing in the cabins, meeting rooms, and common areas. Students must be driven to camp by their parents or teachers and will have their temperature checked before they are allowed to remain for the weekend. Mask wearing is required and groups will be smaller than in the past. Jane Erickson will be the Lead Facilitator. Jane is our Past Kiwanis International President. She's been involved with Key Leader as a facilitator since the beginning of the program.

Kiwanis Clubs and members are invited to support Key Leader by becoming sponsors at several levels.

The cost of a regular participant is $250 and $150 for a student facilitator. If you willing to sponsor one or more students, please send a check to the Martin Kiwanis Club, P. O. Box 583, Martin, TN 38237 or ask Steve to put your donation on your bill.
