“Kiwaniis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Rogena Woods Mitchell

Rogena Woods Mitchell is a native of Jackson County, Mississippi where she resides with her husband, Stephen and daughter, Amber. Rogena is a 1997 graduate of William Carey College where she obtained a Bachelor of Science degree. She is currently working towards her Master of Divinity from Grand Canyon University. Mrs. Mitchell is the Club Opening Specialist-Logistics Lead for Kiwanis International. In her Kiwanis community she is District Trustee for the Magnolia Region of the Louisiana Mississippi West Tennessee District of Kiwanis International. Rogena has been a member of the Kiwanis family since 2006. She has served as Club President, Club Fundraising Chair and SLP Chair, Club Secretary and Lt. Governor. Rogena is a member of St. John’s Episcopal Church in Ocean Springs where she is a Lector and Choir member. In her spare time, Rogena enjoys spending time with her family, reading, attending fountain pen shows and cruising.

Election of Officers: Our bylaws state that outgoing members of the Board of Directors and the Past-President serve as the nominating committee. These members are Earl Wright, Sara Sieber, Frank Black and Danelle Fabianich. The officers are to be elected in early to mid-May with two weeks notice of the election. Here is the list of current officers of Kiwanis. If you have a desire to serve in any capacity, please volunteer.

Current Officers: Annie Jones, President; John Mayros, President-Elect; Vice President, Laura Taylor; Treasurer, Steve Lemond; Assistant Treasurer, Linda Ramsey; Secretary, Anna Clark; Assistant Treasurer, Clinton Smith; Returning Board Members: Ann Gathers, Bettye Giles, Jayne Parrish, plus the aforementioned board members whose terms are ending. Carry over officers for next year presumably are Annie Jones as Past-President, John Mayros as President and Laura Taylor as President-elect.

Decorated Egg Artists For 2021—Winners in the Kiwanis Decorated Egg contest are (l-r) Karson Pitt, 6, best celebrity; Kenton Pitt, 6, most unusual; Greyson Stout, 6, most colorful; Bella Reaves, 6, most unusual. Piper Reaves, 3, (front) received a prize in the best celebrity category for her Princess Poppy egg. Felicity Rachels (not pictured) was also a winner for her most colorful decorated egg entered in another group. Each winner received an Easter basket filled with cakes, candy, a puzzle, and a gift card to Dairy Queen. Kiwanis workers Anna Clark, Sara Sieber, and Jayne Parrish enjoyed greeting children and parents, setting up the egg board for display of the entries, and awarding the baskets to the artists.
