“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Linda Ramsey — Key Leader Update

Future Programs

May 5 — Piper Black Douglas: Medicine and Hospice Care
May 19 — Weakley County Update, Mayor Jake Bynum

Weakley County Reconciliation Project Treasurer Randy Cooper presents Linda Ramsey a check for $250. As a Red sponsor for Key Leader WCRP’s gift will support one student to attend Key Leader the weekend of April 30. The event is to be held at Camp Lakeshore in Eva, TN.

Kite Day: The Weakley County Reconciliation Project, Obion County’s newly formed NAACP chapter, Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity, and the UTM office of Student Life and Multicultural Affairs are sponsoring a “kite day” at Pacer Pond, Saturday, April 24.

Free kite kits can be picked up at the Martin Public Library and at the office of Student Life and Multicultural Affairs.

All kites must be made in advance for the event. Prizes will be given to the best decorated kites. The event is to call attention to environmental justice and sustainability and will feature Dr. Eric Pelren addressing those issues. Eric has spoken to Kiwanis on several occasions.

On April 12, members of the Martin and Greenfield Kiwanis Clubs join hands and help with the distribution of food for those in need in Weakley County. Pictured (left to right) are Robert Lovell, Greenfield Kiwanis Club; Frank Black, Martin Kiwanis Club; Annabelle Lovell, daughter of Robert and Rachel Lovell; and Rachel Lovell, member of the Greenfield Kiwanis Club. Our own Linda Ramsey took the picture and also helped others in the Northwest Tennessee Development District pack boxes for approximately 800 families in Weakley County.
