Christmas Parade Update: The Christmas parade committee (Ann Gathers Chair), Jayne, Jim, Linda, Steve, and Anna (Publicity) met last Sunday and set the date for December, 6th. Presumably this will place the parade on the Monday between the Light Up Martin event and Santa's Village. The theme is "Christmas in Tennessee." In a busy week, information has been sent to former participants, the Martin Business Association, the Weakley County Chamber of Commerce, Facebook, and local news outlets. Club members are in receipt of this year's application form. These may also be downloaded from www.martinkiwanisclub.org. Help us get the word out!

At the September 23 meeting, the club honored our nominees for district awards with certificates and a donation to a charity of their choice. Harry, who was our nominee for Layperson of the Year, was unable to attend that meeting, but his donation on behalf of the club went to We Care. He is pictured below along with We Care Director, Betty Baker.
