

January 19, 2022

"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Today's Program

Mary Morgan, Extension Agent I, 4H Development, Weakley County Ag Extension Office in Dresden

Upcoming Program

Feb. 16 — Dwayne Webb, St. John's Community Services

Board Notes

Kiwanis had received a request from Lakeshore Camp & Retreat Center for end of year donations to assist with lack of camps. Steve mailed a check for $100 to Camp Lakeshore from the club.

Westview High's special education class is wanting to start a recycling program at their school. They are looking to get some plastic tubs to use as recycling bins for each classroom. The board approved support. A dollar amount was not specified.

Pancake Day? Steve stated that he was watching food prices to see what our costs might be. Price adjustment to $7 was approved. The date may be Saturday, February 26, pending approval from Martin Elementary School and Martin Parks and Recreation to schedule in coordination with baseball/softball sign-up. Ongoing discussion is occurring as to moving the date to March and how various ways of delivery, including curbside (as per Rotary Ham Breakfast).

The Region 1 Conference is January 29 in Millington, TN. As usual, the club needs delegates and a basket for raffle. Linda is attending.

Other News: Kiwanian Roberta Peacock, recently retired as Director of the Martin Public Library, Dec. 31, was honored at a public reception and open house Dec. 4. Roberta is still active at the library, however, as she is a member of the Weakley County Historical and Genealogical Society and has attended recent events in the Demonstration Kitchen, and meetings of the Friends of the Library. Who knows, she might even be seen at the Friends-sponsored discussion of Slaughterhouse 5 on Jan. 27 at 6:30 p.m. Whether you have read the book (or not), seen the movie (or not), or are just interested in finding more about it, you are invited to attend. Written in 1969 after two assassinations and during the Viet Nam war, a central event is the firebombing of Dresden (Germany) during WWII. The novel has been selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 greatest of all time.
