UTK Extension Agent Mary Morgan (left) and five 4-H Honor Club members presented information about area 4-H activities and opportunities at our Jan. 19. Students (l - r) are Emily Brown, Obion; Reece Chandler, Union City; Kyeler Penick, Martin; Olivia Julian, Kenton; and Angela Moubray, Dresden. The letters in the four-leaf clover symbolize Head, Heart, Hands, and Health. Members strive to follow this pledge: "I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, and my health to better living, for my club, my community, my country, and my world." Kiwanis members present welcomed these young students who spoke so well about their service activities and leadership opportunities through involvement in 4-H. They stand behind a display board of some recent activities.
