Today's Program

Getting to 1875!

David Sudberry hands Jamie Summers a symbolic "golden pancake turner" in honor of his cooking 1875 pancakes last Saturday. Today's program includes a financial report and a recap of how we got to 1875 pancakes. Steve used David Brodrick's 5 pages of notes ranging from selling placemat ads and securing liability insurance to calling out for help securing syrup and making sure there was always enough coffee.

Dwayne Webb, director of the Martin Branch of St. John's Community Services (SJCS) was guest speaker at the Feb. 16 meeting of the club. First joining St. John's when Ernie and Evelyn Blythe were involved, he gave a brief history of the Martin location of SJCS, discussed the many services provided for adults living with disabilities, and showed several brief videos featuring employment services and use of technology to enhance the lives of those seeking assistance. Dwayne challenged us to "Imagine a world where every person belongs!"
