Club News

Linda Ramsey has been investigating the possibility of securing grants to help with disaster relief in Dresden. In particular she has discussed the possibility with Second Harvest of West Tennessee and Kiwanis International as well as area Kiwanis Clubs. Here is portion of a note she recently sent to board members.

"Today I heard from the Union City Kiwanis Club President that they are interested in partnering with us for a (Kiwanis) Disaster Grant for Dresden. Tonight (May 10th) the Greenfield Kiwanis Club decided that they would also like to partner with us for a Disaster Grant. I also heard from Donna Vick, Second Harvest, that she has applied for us to get a Mobile Pantry, and she will let me know by Monday when that might be able to take place. I need to find out more about what that entails, but I think that is in regard to the perishable items. She also told me that it might be April before we could get this accomplished, but April is just two weeks away. Lots of good news today! I will keep you updated as I get more information."

For more than 30 years, Kiwanis has been a part of the action at the Martin Parks and Recreation annual Easter Egg Hunt with the crafty, colorful, creative, and free decorated egg contest. Children are asked to bring decorated eggs (cooked, of course!) to the Easter Egg Hunt to be judged for one of the prize baskets.

There is no entry fee for any event at the annual Easter Egg Hunt. Entries for the most colorful, most unusual, and best celebrity eggs will be accepted between 9 -10 a.m. The categories for judging are the same as for the egg hunts: Special Needs, 1-2, 3-4, 5-7, and 8-10.

Event planners and Kiwanis members urge young artists to decorate boiled eggs and hop on over to the Martin Recreation Complex for excitement galore!

Winners of the decorated egg contest will be announced at the end of each hunt.

Guess who! A Martin Kiwanis member was a winner in the Sears National Baby Contest for a certain year prior to 2000!
