“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Mayor Randy Brundige: “What’s happening in Martin: the repurposing of the Weldon Building into the City of Martin Small Business Center and the UTM Bromley Training Center, elimination of the splash pad, and more.” This is your chance to hear it first hand from the mayor!

June 15 program: Police Chief Don Teal. Don began his career at the Martin Police Department in 1983. He has been involved in every area of the department.

Club News

With the abbreviated schedule we are currently using, a number of folks are having a little difficulty keeping up with meetings dates. June meetings are scheduled for the 1st in room 230 and 15th in room 125 respectively. There is a possibility of a social meeting on the fifth Wednesday on June 28th.

Tony Robinson, a Greenfield HS graduate and financial advisor with Edward Jones, credits his teacher, Linda Farmer, for his interest in mathematics and ultimately his ultimate desire to become a financial advisor.

In his presentation last week, Tony addressed

“rules of the road for investing, strategies for tax-smart investing, and estate issues.

What’s happening in Martin? On May 24th, representatives from the Dallas, Texas Police Department joined Mayor Brundige, Chancellor Carver, UTM Criminal Justice Professor Brian Donavant, and others in a ceremony naming the Bromley Training Center in the Weldon Building. The facility is named in memory of 1981 UTM graduate Lawrence Bromley who was killed in action in 1991 in Dallas. For more information, see <https://www.utm.edu/news/2022/05/25/bromley-training-center-naming-memorializes-fallen-officer/>

That’s just a fraction of what is going on in Martin!
