“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Business Meeting:

At the monthly Board meeting, it was proposed “To run the club efficiently, our Kiwanis Club should return to a weekly meeting schedule with monthly dues of $50.” Effective date TBD. To be voted on at today’s meeting.

Note: if the club continues on a twice monthly schedule, dues would be $32.

Future Programs:

Oct. 5:

Eric Nordberg: White Ball Clay Industry of Northwest Tennessee.

Oct. 19:

Installation of Officers and Recognitions

Club News: Kiwanis logo garment sales: 16 people ordered 21 shirts including short/long sleeves, sweatshirts, and hoodies: colors red, Kiwanis blue, black, and grey.

Two 6-foot tablecloths were also ordered. One was billed to the club and one donated. Both tablecloths are Kiwanis Blue with the “Kiwanis Serving the Children of the World” logo.

Kiwanis Bootcamp: Volunteers are needed to attend zoom meetings held on 5 different Mondays at 6:00 p.m. Volunteers for Oct. 3 are Linda and Vickie, Oct. 10: Jim, Anna, and Roberta, Nov. 15: Jayne. Other dates are Dec. 5 and 12. Note that Dec. 5 is the scheduled date for Christmas parade. Perhaps the zoom meeting that day can be recorded?

Thirteen Kiwanians attended the Crossroads Luncheon at the City of Martin Event Center. Donations were made by each of the participating clubs to benefit the Martin Public Library. MPL Director Katie Parr was the presenter for the event and accepted the donations from club presidents.
