

October 5, 2022

"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Today's Program

Erik Nordberg, dean of the Paul Meek Library:
White Ball Clay Industry of Northwest Tennessee

Results of Business Meeting:

At the Kiwanis meeting of September 21, the club decided to resume weekly meetings in January 2023. Dues will be $50 per month. Twice monthly meetings will continue through the end of 2022 with dues $32 per month. Both dues amounts are for regular membership and reflect the International and District dues increases.

Kiwanis at the Farmers Market: At the September 21 meeting, the chapter voted to participate by maintaining a crafts table for children at the Fall Festival at the Farmers Market on Saturday, October 15. The project will (we hope) result in something like the leaf pictured below. Volunteers are needed. You can come anytime from 8 to 11:30 for an hour or so or all morning. We will be sheltered. This event will mark the closing of the market for the year.

Kiwanis logo garment pickup. If you ordered Kiwanis merch recently, you may pick it up at Wednesday's meeting. Please have a check made out to Monograms and More or cash for payment.

Kiwanis Bootcamp: Volunteers are still needed to attend zoom meetings held on 5 different Mondays at 6:00 p.m. Volunteers for Oct. 3 are Linda and Vickie, Oct. 10: Jim, Anna, and Roberta, Nov. 15: Jayne. Other dates are Dec. 5 and 12. Note that Dec. 5 is the scheduled date for Christmas parade. Perhaps the zoom meeting that day can be recorded?

Soybean 5K: Clinton and Vickie were responsible for pulling this event off. David Belote, Bill and Linda were there for early registration. Pictures are available on the Kiwanis Facebook page.

Early Halloween Treat: For those, like in the comic strip Drabble, who clean Walmart out of candy corn as soon as it appears on the shelves, we have a special Halloween treat: a gift box that includes 3 Kit Kat pumpkin spice bars. Limited to 18. Come get yours! Extras will be shared or sent with Danelle to take back to her office.
