the opening of the Centennial Time Capsule and the Sesquicentennial Fireworks Celebration, which will feature an expanded show. He also outlined a number of other planned events and invited Kiwanis members to join a committee and to consider even adding a special entry in the Kiwanis and City of Martin Christmas Parade. Brad had sixteen pages of information related to community projects and development but only had time to discuss several. He underscored how important it is for citizens to work together to connect and improve the community.

It was noted that two Kiwanis members present were here for the Centennial Celebration.
