"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Terry McDade, Weakley County Sheriff

More than 40 Kiwanians attended the Kiwanis 2022-23 Mid-Year Regional Education Conference, which was hosted by the Martin Kiwanis Club and held February 18 at the Bowling University Center in Martin. The day began after breakfast as the governor met with all club presidents. Lunch was also served.

Sessions included presentations about increasing membership, applying for Kiwanis Foundation grants, and planning a signature club project. Drawings for the eleven baskets and numerous door prizes also kept the event moving forward.

Among those attending from the Louisiana-Mississippi-West Tennessee District of Kiwanis International were Governor Bruce Hammatt, Division 1A Lt. Governor John Lowrance, and Region 1 Trustee John Fry.
