“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Joyce Washington, West TN Bicentennial

LIFE-LONG LEARNING AND INSPIRATION FROM WEST TN PBS—Peter Noll, general manager/CEO for West TN PBS, said in an April 26 presentation for Kiwanis that this locally-owned and governed television station reaches more than 18 counties in our area and provides a world of learning and discovery through quality programming, educational services, and online information. Noll is pictured here with Sandra Holliman (left), administration and finance assistant for West TN PBS, and Ann Gathers.

Noll, who has many years of experience in television, expressed his excitement about working with public television in this area. He also expressed gratitude for the work that has been done to strengthen public television in West Tennessee and said that with continued donations from viewers, our local television station will be able to produce even more local programs, hold additional community education events, and continue to provide viewers with quality arts, entertainment, and documentary programs. He said that West TN PBS (WLJT-TV Channel 11) is a registered nonprofit 501C3 organization and all donations to the station are tax deductible. West TN PBS offers three free (depending on your provider) TV channels: 11.1—PBS, 11.2—PBS Kids, and 11.3—Create “how to” programs that focus on home, garden, and crafts.

From Linda: Kiwanis Key Leader 2023 was one of our best and biggest events yet! There were 57 students and 17 adults attending. Check out West Tennessee Key Leader on Facebook for pictures and videos of the event! Special thanks go to Rachel Lovell, Betsy Kirby, Jessica Hightower, and C. David Elliott for taking pictures. A big thanks goes to Rachel Lovell for putting the slide show together! Thanks go to all the chaperones who volunteered and made this event possible! Thanks always to Steve, Jayne, and Vincent for great support.
