“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

David Coffey, Chair, Department of History and Philosophy, UT Martin:
“Assessing American Exceptionalism”

Last week: William “Kevin” Decker, director of West Tennessee Healthcare Volunteer Hospital, spoke to Kiwanis at the May 10 meeting. He traced his journey of education and service before coming to West Tennessee and discussed in detail some of the challenges of a rural hospital where access to health care is vital and close to home. He outlined the various awards for quality given to Volunteer Hospital, the numerous specialties offered at the 100-bed facility, and some of the service highlights.

Kiwanis Program Committee: here are the people to contact when you have an inspiration and think “that person would make a great program for Kiwanis” and wonder who to tell:

- Earl Wright—January, February, June
- Danelle Fabianich—March, August, September
- Steve Lemond—April
- Frank Black—May
- *Bill Austin, Chair—July
- Jim and Anna Clark—October and December
- Sara Sieber—November
