VINEYARDS

MARTIN | TENNESSEE

Weakley county's first and only "farm winery" was founded in 2014 by Larry and Paula Snider. Come hear the story of how they got started, sold their first crop after three years, and opened their vineyard to the public on April 28 this year. A great story!

Last week: "Nurture the Future" was the theme of the of the 2023 Kiwanis International Convention held June 21 - 24 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Local Kiwanis members attending were Linda Ramsey and Roberta Peacock.

At the July 19 meeting, Linda and Roberta gave an overview of inspirational speakers they heard and the workshops they attended. In keeping with "serving the children of the world," each lead speaker was introduced by a child. Some of the topics included "Creating Leaders through Service and Mentorship," "Membership," "Service Leadership Programs." "Bringing Kiwanis to New Communities," "Fundraising," "Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion," "Service Projects," and more.

Our local Kiwanians brought back ideas and renewed energy for serving this community. Both are also encouraging their fellow
