She was 100 years old on April 13 this year, and she was the Union City Kiwanis club president the same year Linda was president of the Martin club. She also served as a lieutenant governor for our division. Visitation will be Saturday morning from nine until 11 at White Ransom funeral home in Union City followed by the funeral at 11 a.m..

A note of thanks: Thank you so much for helping with the Fall Book Walk! It was a great success and the feedback has been wonderful. I could not have completed this event without you. — Jenny Claiborne, Children's Librarian, C. E. Weldon Library

David and Dawn Belote dropped by the Book walk on the 22nd. He took a number of photos which he shared with the library board, and what would appear to be about half the population of Martin. His message was brief; "Hello Friends, Beautiful day + great people + great event + great facilities = Community! This was well done!" The photos are available at Belote Pictures.

Danelle Fabianich, showed members of the Kiwanis Club how UT Martin's Skyhawks are "soaring to new heights" with the impressive four-story press box at Hardy M. Graham Stadium. reality in the construction of the new building, and she praised Trudy Henderson, coordinator of external operations for UT Martin Athletics, as one of the key leaders in moving toward the completion of the building. Danelle commented: "It is such an honor to share our wonderful new building with my Kiwanis family." After discussing the extensive fundraising efforts for the new building and the distinctive branding now in place (murals and details with the Skyhawk logo), Danelle led the group to the press area on the fourth floor. She said that now the Skyhawks, currently in second place in the OVC, are "ESPN ready" for any future playoffs and the facilities for WUTM, the campus radio station, are outstanding!

After indicating that UTM was previously known to have the worst facility in the conference, now "we have the second best facility in the OVC." She also indicated that no student fees were used to construct the building and that it was the first totally new building on campus in many, many years.

Kiwanis members were impressed with the views of the field and the colorful Skyhawk branding in the Champions Club area. One Kiwanis member said: "This is an impressive facility for our university and community."
