Key Leader Update: as of Monday morning, there were 52 regular participants and 7 facilitators signed up for Key Leader with others registrations still coming in. The following Martin students from Westview have registered: Angel Barr, Shavonta Barnett, Aubrey Bynum, Jaclynn Cartwright, Tekayla Cartwright, Cameron Couch, Taylor Hoffman, Tania Ramos, Gabriel Reed, Malik Roberson, Geneva Shorter, Deriuna Sirmana and Tessa Stout. From Martin Middle School: Allie Abbott, Bentley Couch, Tierra Cartwright, Amircalle Reed, and Ryan Robinson.

Award presented to Linda Ramsey at by the Rev. Orrin Cowley at McCabe United Methodist Church on Sunday, April 30th for her "outstanding contributions to the youth of McCabe United Methodist Church & the greater Martin community" McCabe youth have been especially involved in Key Leader the last two years. As Linda says, "the reason I coordinate Kiwanis Key Leader Weekend is because it is the BEST Youth Program available today!"

Board Meeting Notes: Voted two sponsorships to Key Leader. Voted to support Westview student Samantha Fortner at 1/3 the cost of special trip to San Antonio July 5-9 to attend ICON, the international key club convention. Samantha is the first Westview student to attend ICON. This amount pledged by our club was the proportion suggested by the district site. Samantha attended the district convention in Jackson, MS and is considering running for District Lt. Governor.

"Kiwanis Is" May 17th. This is an informative program to which we invite folks whom we believe might make great members of Kiwanis. This is only effective if we 1) invite people and 2) we show up in numbers ourselves. So take a chance, invite someone who as your guest. The person you invite could be a "long shot" or an "easy target."... nothing ventured, nothing gained.
