Thanks to all who brought the wonderful food to last week's "inside picnic." Special shout outs go to David Spencer who prepared the hot dogs and hamburgers and Steve Lemond who maintains all the serving equipment and supplies required for our Kiwanis gatherings. Thanks also to Bill Austin, Maddy Rosenbaum and Linda Ramsey for their special expertise in navigating Trinity's fellowship hall and to all those Kiwanis members who helped on both ends of setting and cleaning up. On returning the key on Wednesday morning we were told that "everything was perfect!"

Heard at the Western Kentucky Community College "Noon into Night" eclipse festivities: "We have a few clouds right now, but we are trying our best to get them to move on to Benton and Hopkinsville." They succeeded in having no clouds for the 2 minutes plus of totality.

Kurt McGuffin, new director of intercollegiate athletics for the University of Tennessee at Martin, spoke to members of Kiwanis at the Aug. 9 meeting.

McGuffin discussed his excitement about being in the Martin community with his family and his vision for continuing to improve athletic programs. "We would like to increase scholarship dollars and continue to give teams and coaches an opportunity to win. We want UT Martin athletes to be good as students, good as athletes, and good as people," McGuffin said.

During his first year at UT Martin, McGuffin plans to concentrate on building relationships with coaches and staff, faculty and staff, and those in the community. "We will find new ways to support each other," he said.

McGuffin holds degrees from Kansas State and Wichita State Universities. He comes to the Skyhawks with more than 18 years of experience in education and athletics.
