Club News

Saturday was an absolutely beautiful day for a Book Walk! Seven Kiwanis members, one Westview Key Club member, and one member of K-Kids assisted C.E. Weldon librarians Roberta Peacock and Jenny Claiborne with craft activities that made everyone smile. Look closely in the pictures and you will see happy children making all sorts of clever crafts, including an owl, a pig (what fun those curly tails were!), a pony, and a dragonfly. But there was even more happening at Harrison Field disc golf course as children and family members started at the first table to do a leaf rubbing with Danelle and then walked from station to station to read a delightful fall story—When the Leaf Blew In. Thank you to Roberta and Jenny for creating such an exciting fall activity. Kiwanis members were happy to share in the fun and provide help with transporting materials, setting up the tables, and helping with the crafts!
