Club News

Project 731: As last week's meeting, Wendy Stover reported on an organization with the goal of making (especially) young people aware of opportunities that exist in area code 731. The organization was begun by Wendy and her husband Ryan. Their mission is simple – bring impactful change to our hometowns and the region we love. They aim their initiatives towards the younger generations, working to develop a community that can provide them a future. One event they sponsored locally was the Tacky Little Christmas Pub Crawl last December.

Offering three primary services to the region: 1) they specialize in free or low-cost event planning for businesses or organizations; 2) they work towards economic development in the 731 by working with current and future businesses to increase their footprint in the region; and 3) they sell apparel all about the 731. In particular, Grant Harper, Project 731 graphic designer designed the 2018 Soybean Festival T-shirt. (Graphic pictured below)
